High street woes sees jobs go at shop fitters

TWENTY-FOUR staff have been made redundant as a struggling Haverhill shop fittings business desperately looks for a buyer.

Employees at Sperling Retail Solutions Ltd were laid off after the firm was forced into administration. Orders had been falling from shops hit by plummeting high street spending amid the global recession.

The company was a leading shop fitting and fixtures manufacturer for some of Britain's best-known retailers, including Wallis, Debenhams, M&S, Oasis, Burberry, Etam and JD Sports.

But the failing fortunes of Britain's retail sector now threatens the future of the once-booming company, which employed 52 people at its 45,000 sq ft factory in Manor Road until the arrival of administrators Grant Thornton UK LLP on February 24.

The Cambridge-based accountants were forced to lay off half the firm's workforce in their first day in charge and need to find a buyer soon to ensure the company's survival.

Administrator Ian Carr said: "We are continuing to trade and are fulfilling our orders."

"It is a consequence of the current retail environment, which has had an impact on orders. Forecasts for this year are expected to be down on last year."

"The firm needs a buyer fairly imminently to continue. We would like to impress this urgency upon any potential buyer."

Home care reality, thanks to readers

BY John Goode

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

A PIONEERING scheme to provide care at home for terminally-ill patients has been launched.

The scheme, supported by Weekly News readers through our St Nicholas Hospice at Home appeal, was officially launched on Tuesday at the Bury St Edmunds hospice.

It provides nursing and other support for patients so that they can stay in their own homes and extends into Cambridgeshire and Essex, as well as west Suffolk.

Our appeal is close to its target of £40,000, which will help cover the start-up costs after a year of fundraising.

The hospice has taken on two nursing assistants who will join their existing team to help provide support to patients.

Trevor Farrington, head of the hospice community team, said: "When it comes to end of life care we all want to be treated with respect and dignity and want to be in familiar surroundings."

The first two patients have been receiving "hands-on" care by the team. But more than 250 people could benefit from the Hospice at Home team.

Mr Farrington added: "It's a testament to the readers of the Haverhill Weekly News that have generated this money. The service is no longer an aspiration - it's a reality as of today."

He said the existing community services provided by the hospice need £560,000 a year to maintain - most of it coming from fund-raising efforts.

He said: "During these difficult times we are increasingly appreciative of fundraising initiatives because of the limited money we get from the statutory sector."

Hospice staff can help liaise with GPs, voluntary organisations and other support groups which can help patients and their families by easing the burden of seeking out services needed for people to be treated in their homes.

■ Haverhill mayor Cllr Les Ager is organising a charity dance - on Friday, April 3, at the Grampian Pavilion in Little Wratting - in support of our Hospice At Home Appeal.

Tickets, at £8.50, are available from Vicky Ward on (01440) 714140 or Cllr Ager on (01440) 706981.

'Patients and relatives need help'

HAVERHILL resident Peter Holmes paid tribute to the support given by hospice staff to his wife, who died less than three weeks ago.

Mr Holmes, 66, of Arendene Road (pictured left), said his wife, Christine, would have wanted him to speak about their experience and how important it is for the hospice to continue to receive financial backing from the community.

He said: "The help that we received from the hospice and the community nurses was amazing. People don't realise the help that's available.

"The biggest thing that people don't realise is that the hospice is not run by the NHS."

Mrs Holmes was 63 when she died from ovarian cancer at the hospice. But she had been cared for at home after a four-month stay in Addenbrooke's Hospital. She had worked as an occupational nurse at Grampian Foods, on the outskirts of Haverhill, for 25 years after starting her nursing career on the south coast.

Mr Holmes said she wanted to spend as much time as possible at home after her cancer was diagnosed.

"You need a lot of things to care for someone at home and I expected I could have eventually rung around and done it myself," said Mr Holmes. "But Trevor Farrington and his team took that pressure off me. Anybody who is going through having a member of the family with cancer doesn't need any extra worry.

"If we didn't have the hospice people like myself would be in a very bad way.

"It's not only the person with cancer who needs help. It's the relatives as well.

"The hospice can't give help unless people give support to the hospice. It's like giving something back."

How can you help?

ST NICHOLAS Hospice Care has launched its home service for the Haverhill and surrounding area, thanks to the generosity of our readers. But fundraising efforts are still ongoing.

We are so close to our £40,000 target but we cannot reach it without your help - so the Weekly News wants to hear from anyone who is organising fund-raising discos, barbecues, dances or other events to boost the hospice appeal.

Tell us what you are planning and we will help publicise your event to make sure it is a success and raises as much money as possible.

If you already have an event organised, why not pledge all or part of the proceeds to the appeal and benefit from the extra publicity to help a really good cause.

A special bank account has been set up at Barclay's Bank. Cash or cheques can be paid in directly to the St Nicholas Hospice at Home Appeal, sort code 201612, account number 80981842.

An on-line donations page has also been created at www.justgiving.com/haverhillweeklynews, which also gives details of how to donate by text, and you can donate by phone on (01284) 715582, at the hospice shop in High Street, Haverhill, or the Weekly News office in Queen Street, Haverhill.

In search of a local hero

AN MP is asking for a local "hero" to join him at a national award ceremony at the House of Commons.

The annual event, hosted by the Experience Corps, recognises the community contributions made by over the 50s.

The Experience Corps is an independent not-for-profit company which was set up in 2001 to encourage people aged 50 and over to offer their skills and experience as volunteers.

All the local heroes who are nominated for these awards are being recognised for the hard work and support they give their communities through their voluntary work.

Haverhill MP Richard Spring said: "West Suffolk is extremely lucky to have such an active voluntary sector."

"I am constantly amazed at the number of people who spend a considerable amount of their time and energy helping others. I urge everyone to nominate someone who they think deserves the recognition and thanks for their contribution."

Anyone who would like to nominate someone as a local hero should write to Mr Spring at the House of Commons, London, SW1A 0AA before April 9.

Care costs are frozen

NON-RESIDENTIAL care charges have been frozen to help people struggling in the recession-hit economy.

Suffolk County Council fixed charges for homecare, daycare, transport and community meals at 2008 levels at a cabinet meeting on Tuesday.

Cllr Graham Newman, portfolio holder for adults and community services, who made the decision, said: "I am pleased we can pass on the benefit of this prudent management to the people who use our services."

"This price freeze is aimed to provide some certainty and to help those with care costs, to plan for and manage the care they need for the year ahead."

Garage doors opened on action day

A COMMUNITY action day saw police team up with a housing association to cut car crime.

Pc Rupert Beynon led a crime prevention day in the Cambridge Way area of Haverhill on Tuesday, which saw officers, police community support staff and officers from Havebury Housing check up on vehicle security.

Officers inspected derelict garages for stolen or illegal materials, as well as offering a free heavy duty Bulldog lock to garage owners.

Meanwhile, housing association officers Jane Duffy and Janice Hamilton spoke to residents about leasing some of the 46 empty garages.

Pc Beynon, who was named Suffolk's best police officer last week for his work in cutting anti-social behaviour in Haverhill, said: "We opened up 42 garages in Cambridge Way and four in Cambridge Close to check if there were any stolen items, but we didn't find anything.

"But it's a shame that so many are empty as they could be providing secure parking for cars, which would certainly reduce vehicle crime.

"We'd like people to park their cars there and if they take up a lease, they will get a free lock."

My livelihood stolen, says kebab man Stav

BY Jack Grove

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

A POPULAR fast food vendor has spoken of his shock and anger after his kebab van was stolen.

Ertunc Mihrikani - known as Stav by his loyal customers in Haverhill's High Street - says he has been left reeling after discovering his prized kebab van had been stolen from his lock-up in Cambridge Way.

The 58 year old has been selling kebabs in the town for 20 years, including six years in the lay-by near Argos, but now fears he may not be able to replace his beloved vehicle.

The father of two said: "I can't believe these people have done this."

"They've stolen my livelihood by taking this van. I spent £15,000 on buying it three years ago and it took a long time to get everything just right.

"It's a terrible thing to do to a working man - I worked long hours to buy that van and now it's gone. I feel very upset and angry about it.

"It's also bad for my customers as I've suddenly disappeared. Everyone knows who I am and they appreciate my food - I've suddenly disappeared and people will be asking where I've gone."

Stav, whose van is clearly marked Stav's Kebabs, is now asking anyone who has seen his van to contact police following the burglary on Sunday night between midnight and 8am. Two electricity generators were also taken.

"It's so clearly marked and well-known in Haverhill that someone must know where it is," he added.

"It's taken years to build up my business and establish a base of customers. I need to get it back quickly, so I can start to earn a living once again."

Anyone with any information can phone police on (01284) 774100 or Crimestoppers on 0800 555111.

Labour bid to put extra cash into services

A DECISION to move £5 million into local authority reserves has been attacked by opposition councillors.

Cllr Sandy Martin has criticised the move by the Conservative-run Suffolk County Council to place a £5 million underspend into reserves for a rainy day.

The Labour spokesman for the environment believes the money should be invested in improving adult care services, crumbling road surfaces or making council buildings more energy efficient.

Areas of underspend identified by the main opposition group include £1 million on adult care services, £2.2 million on environment and transport and £430,000 on bus transport, which it claims should be reinvested into front-line services.

He said: "At a time of recession it makes no sense for the county council to make cuts to services."

But the council has rejected the claims, saying it has put an extra £3.8 million into child protection services and £1.1 million into helping vulnerable adults, while also finding savings of £60 million.

Shop fitters call in administrator

It follows a £1.19 million company buy-out by directors Tony Gale and David Waddell in March last year in a deal backed by Lloyds TSB.

At the time, Mr Gale was predicting a bright future for the business following a decade of buoyant consumer spending and the promise of an expanding retail sector.

In March 2008, he said: "Sperling is a fantastic brand in the UK shop fitting market and we will build on this, adding new clients and bringing new investment into the business."

"We expect the business to grow significantly over the next three years, helping to secure local jobs."

Mr Gale was not available for comment when the Weekly News contacted Sperling.

Special birthday

A VOLUNTEER group which has raised thousands of pounds for charity has celebrated its 80th anniversary.

Members of the Haverhill Women's Royal British Legion gathered at Haverhill Bowls Club to mark the milestone.

Treasurer Linda Chumbley said: "It's a tremendous achievement and we are very proud of all the activities carried out by the legion over the past 80 years."

There was also an award for Brenda Spencer, who has played an active part in the legion for the past 42 years.

Special town honour for devoted citizens

BY Jack Grove

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

SOME of Haverhill's most dedicated public servants and volunteers have been handed the freedom of the town for their tireless community work.

Nearly 50 people were awarded the prestigious honour at Haverhill Arts Centre last night as part of celebrations to mark the 20th anniversary of the town's council.

All the selfless individuals singled out have worked in the community over the past 20 years to maintain the town's cultural, sporting, religious and community life, and devoted hundreds of hours to charitable events or voluntary groups.

Mayor of Haverhill, Cllr Les Ager, was one of the 49 handed the honour, recognising his efforts to encourage music in the town over the past six decades, including conducting the Haverhill Silver Band for 30 years.

His wife, Jean, was also honoured for her leading role in the Haverhill Operatic Society in the past 35 years, as well as organising and producing the town's carol service and Last Night of the Proms with her husband.

Haverhill Bowls Club stalwart George Cooke, local historian Roy Brazier, anti-crime campaigner Jean Buckton and long-time church organist and councillor Gwen Cracknell were also honoured.

Town council clerk Gordon Mussett said: "We want to recognise those many individuals who, over the past 20 years, have in their own way, often unrecognised, given of their time to contribute to the town and the community.

"For employees, long service rewards used to come in the form of watches or clocks. This event was about offering something more valuable – the award of the Freedom of Haverhill and the public recognition that goes with it."

All of the 14 ex-mayors of Haverhill were also given the freedom of the town to salute their work on the council, which was established in 1989.

There was also sadness as popular youth club leader Carole Pinker was posthumously awarded the honour. She had run Leiston Community Centre for over 30 years but lost her long battle with cancer. Her husband received the honour in her memory.

Those awarded the Freedom of Haverhill were: Mr M Adshead, for services to Suffolk Fire Service, the Probation Service and Edmunds Hill Prison; Barbara Adshead, for services to Haverhill Brownies; Les Ager, for services to Haverhill Silver Band, Haverhill and District Operatic Society, Carols for All, local government and Haverhill Town Council; Jean Ager, for services to Haverhill and District Operatic Society, Carols for All and Last Night of the Proms; Rita Annette Atherton, for services to Haverhill Leisure Centre; James Begg, for services to Suffolk Police in Haverhill, Haverhill and District Operatic Society and Haverhill Choral Society; Roy Brazier, for services to Haverhill and District Local History Group, Haverhill Wanderers, Haverhill Rovers and Haverhill Sunday Football League; Jean A Buckton, for services to Elmdon Place Flats, Neighbourhood Watch, Haverhill and District Crime Prevention Panel and Haverhill Housing Partnership; Ada Coe, for services to Haverhill Guides and Brownies; George Cooke, for services to Haverhill Bowls Clubs; Gwendoline Cracknell, for services to various Haverhill churches in pipe organ playing and Haverhill Choral Society; Eileen Mae Elkins, for services to local government in Haverhill, Haverhill Town Council, Haverhill Town Twinning Association and Haverhill Citizens Advice Bureau; Anthony Farrant, for services to St John Ambulance, Haverhill division, and Haverhill Magpas

New shine on shoe shop

SOLE traders have been given a makeover in Haverhill after an £80,000 revamp of a High Street store.

The Clarks franchise has been bought by business partners Steve Wee and Terry Gurney, who believe the outlet will perform strongly despite sales plummeting among most stores in recession-hit Britain.

Mr Wee said: "Business has increased since last year and since we've taken over."

"Trade has been very good – up on last year's takings and up on what Clarks expects of us.

"We're very pleased to invest in Haverhill. The store has always had a good customer base, but it was time to update the store."

"We want residents to continue to support us and other local shops to make sure Haverhill remains a great place to shop."

Cllr Anne Gower, a member of Haverhill Town Council and St Edmundsbury Borough

Council, officially opened the shop in place of mayor Cllr Les Ager, who was unwell.

She said: "I'm absolutely delighted that the owners of Clarks have had the faith in the High Street to invest a considerable sum of money in refitting the shop."

"I think it's so encouraging in these difficult economic times. It shows that Haverhill is not closing down as was implied in a television report."

Instructor's cash reward for pursuit

A DRIVING instructor has been awarded £100 by a judge for chasing after two burglars in his training car with a pupil in tow.

Paul Petit was praised by Judge Anthony Bate for his efforts to stop two men seen driving away from the home of one of his pupils in Wash Lane, Wickambrook, on December 1.

Ipswich Crown Court heard how Mr Petit had arrived at the isolated rural home with his 17-year-old pupil and saw two men making off in the family's £23,000 Land Rover Discovery.

Realising what was happening, Mr Petit swapped seats with the teenage girl and followed the Discovery.

However, a flooded road meant they could not continue their pursuit.

January 19 to steal a £500 dog from a kennel at the Lodge, in Dalham, near Newmarket, and a £10,000 Range Rover from a home in Depden, near Bury St Edmunds.

The pair were arrested after a chase later that day after police spotted their Ford Mondeo getaway vehicle.

Both men admitted two offences of theft and aggravated vehicle taking.

Davis was jailed for 15 months and Hall was ordered to spend the same period in a young offenders' institute.

Both vehicles and the dog have since been recovered.

Judge Bate also awarded the 17-year-old Haverhill girl a £150 Sheriff's award for her actions with Mr Petit in following the two thieves.

Do you recall old cinema?

Sir, With the new multiplex cinema in Haverhill, it's easy to forget that the town once had a purpose built cinema in the High Street called The Playhouse, which was certainly in use as such back in 1970/71, before later becoming a bingo venue.

I was reminded of this by the wife of a friend of mine in Haverhill, who worked there during its bingo run and remembers the chart-topper from 1959, Emile Ford,
of The Checkmates
and What do you want to make those eyes at me for fame, making a guest appearance.

I wonder if any reader might know when The Playhouse finally closed. I recall seeing the outside of the building, but cannot say if this was in cinema or bingo days.

It may even have been closed down.
It would certainly be interesting to see a photo of the old place.

I look forward to hearing from anyone able to assist.

Birthday concert for jazz band

A JAZZ band will hold a concert next week to mark its 10th anniversary.

The Linton Jazz Orchestra was set up in 1999 by music teacher Karen Sanderson to encourage the village's children to enjoy jazz and perform together.

The band has seen more than 100 musicians pass through its ranks over the past 10 years, with some of its graduates, such as drummer Lucy
Landymore and sax player Dan Searjeant, later studying music in London and joining national jazz orchestras.

Karen, who played flute for the Doncaster Jazz Orchestra at the age of 12, said: "I wanted to give something back to young musicians because of the opportunities I had been given when I was younger."

"When we started in 1999, I never thought we would still be going in 10 years, but it is now hard to imagine Linton Jazz not being around."

The concert will take place at Linton
Village College on Saturday, March 21, at 7pm.

Tickets cost £8 for adults, £4 for children and £15 for families. They are available on the door or by calling (01223) 891708.

Jodie's bumper haul

A YOUNG dancer has come back from an international festival with a haul of awards.

Jodie Hart, 9, took part in the International Dance Star Festival in Norway with other members of the Kelly Westgate Academy, based in Royston.

Jodie, of Water Lane, Barnardiston, won the under 10s championship pairs with her partner Jack Morley, also 9, from Melbourn.

They also took second place in the slow pairs and Jodie was second in the under 10 intermediate slow category at the festival, staged at Torp, near Oslo.

Jodie also came fifth in the under 20 intermediate solo and was third in the under 12 trio category with Jack and Madison Blows, 10, from Royston.

The festival was screened on cable and satellite television in Norway.

Jodie's mum Hayley Hart, said: "We're all extremely proud of the way she has progressed. We're looking for business sponsorship to help her progress further."

EXCESSIVE salaries for incoming senior council officers will be curbed after a local authority agreed to review its constitution.

Suffolk County Council will change its recruitment procedures after the £218,000 salary of its chief executive Andrea Hill sparked outrage.

Ms Hill's salary, which is higher than the Prime Minister's annual pay, was condemned by the Taxpayers' Alliance as "completely unjustifiable".

Councillors were also angry that the salary for the chief executive was increased by more than £60,000 without telling them the reasons for the extra cash.

An investigation by the Audit Commission defended the appointment, but it criticised the fact that sufficient information was not shared with council members as to why the rise was necessary.

Its report also found that "the council cannot demonstrate that value for money was given sufficient consideration".

However, a constitutional amendment by the council's opposition group has now amended procedures for the recruitment of senior staff.

It will require the council to submit any changes or increases in salary or conditions to an all-party appointments committee both before the recruitment starts and if changes are proposed during the recruitment process.

Cllr Kevan Lim, who proposed the change at a meeting of the council's audit committee last week, said: "Many people in Suffolk were outraged when the council increased the chief executive's salary by more than £60,000 a year to £218,000 in 2008."

"It was clear from the district auditor's report into that recruitment that the council needed to tighten up its procedures. I am pleased that these changes are being recommended for approval by the full county."

But Suffolk Tory leader Jeremy Pembroke defended the appointment, saying: "The people who live in Suffolk need and deserve the very best."

Fire database for vulnerable

FIREFIGHTERS have set up a database to help reach vulnerable people more quickly.

Suffolk Fire and Rescue Service has joined forces with Suffolk Family Carers to create an information database called Fire and Carers Together (FACT), which will store details of people with sight, hearing or mobility difficulties, mental health illnesses and learning disabilities.

It will alert fire crews to people's special needs when answering an emergency call and inform them about potential hazards, such as oxygen cylinders and medical equipment.

Cllr Joanna Spicer, Suffolk County Council's portfolio holder for public protection, said FACT would offer peace of mind to vulnerable people.

For more information, call (01473 260586) or Suffolk Family Carers on 01473 835400.

Holding on to your home

HAVERHILL Citizens Advice Bureau this month looks at options available to homeowners who lose their jobs and are in danger of losing their homes.

Q: I've heard you can get help if you have a mortgage and you lose your job but I'm confused about how this works. Can you explain?

A: New measures to help people who lose their jobs hang on to their homes were introduced last month. The rules about help with housing costs for owner-occupiers on benefits have changed. You can get help towards paying the interest on your mortgage – known as Support for Mortgage Interest (SMI) – if you are on income support, income-based jobseeker's allowance, or income-related employment and support allowance.

Payment now starts 13 weeks after you make your claim and in most cases SMI can be paid for up to two years on loans up to £200,000.

There have also been a number of recent announcements with the aim of helping homeowners who are at risk of being evicted because of mortgage arrears. Some mortgage lenders have agreed they will not start court action to repossess homes for at least three months and at least two have said they will not begin repossession action until borrowers are six months or more in arrears. This is so that borrowers and lenders can have time to explore other alternatives.

The Government has also announced a new Homeowner Mortgage Support Scheme. It will allow borrowers who experience a significant and temporary loss of income as a result of the current economic climate to delay paying a proportion of the interest payments on their mortgage for up to two years.

Eight major lenders have agreed to support this new scheme. For more information go to www.direct.gov.uk

There is also a new mortgage rescue scheme to help vulnerable homeowners to stay in their home. The scheme will not help you if you have taken out a second charge on your mortgage or if you are in negative equity, and there will be other eligibility conditions too. You can get more information from the Department for Communities and Local Government website at www.communities.org.uk

If you are interested in the scheme, contact your local Citizens Advice Bureau for more information about whether you qualify.

In the meantime, a new leaflet has been published about mortgage arrears. It's called Are you worried about your mortgage? To see a copy, go to: www.nhs.org.uk Haverhill CAB can be found at the Centre for Voluntary Agencies, in Lower Downs Slade, Haverhill, CB9 9HB. For appointments call (01440) 762194.

Telephone advice at the bureau is available on Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday between 9.30am and 11am on (01440) 704012.

Trust to cutback on hospital admissions

BY John Morgan

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

FEWER Cambridgeshire residents will be admitted to hospital under an NHS trust's strategy to improve health while saving millions of pounds.

NHS Cambridgeshire, which pays for hospital care for county residents and runs GP services, has launched what is billed as Cambridgeshire's biggest ever public health debate.

The trust wants members of the public to give their views on its strategy for the next five years, including its aim to reduce bills for A&E and outpatient care.

Chris Banks, NHS Cambridgeshire's chief executive, said there would be more investment in preventive care, such as help to stop smoking and advice for the elderly on how to avoid falls, alongside savings on hospital care.

He said: "We are not talking about hospital closures or any cuts. But both Addenbrooke's and Hinchingbrooke have been running very busy this winter. They get stretched by things like norovirus outbreaks. If we can get them running at a lower bed occupancy rate, that is more manageable for them."

"We would be trying to give patients choices. Rather than having to come to Addenbrooke's for a scan, there might be something available more locally."

According to the trust, Cambridgeshire's bill for hospital care is £23 million more each year than counties of a similar size.

The trust's strategy aims to achieve a "10 per cent shift of outpatients from an acute to a non-acute setting" over five years. That means more outpatient clinics will be provided at community hospitals.

Critics have warned services in the community must be improved if admissions are to be scaled back.

For more information on the Big Health Debate, log on to www.cambridgeshire.nhs.uk or call 0800 2792535.

■ CANCER VICTIM... Carole Pinker was honoured this week.

Cash tribute to ex-councillor

MORE than £500 has been raised in memory of a long-serving community centre worker and former town councillor.

Carole Pinker, who died from cancer last year, was involved with Haverhill's Leiston Centre and was a former member of the town council.

Mrs Pinker, of Bures Court on the town's Clements Estate, was among nearly 50 people who were honoured this week with the freedom of Haverhill at a special ceremony to mark the 20th anniversary of the town council.

Donations totalling £543 were collected at her funeral last November and have now been given to the Roy Castle Lung Foundation.

Her husband, George, said: "I would like to say thank you to all the people who made a contribution in one way or another on the passing of Carole."

"This was overwhelming and made us realise how much she was loved."

He said the family had decided that the Roy Castle fund was the most suitable one to receive the donations.

Mrs Pinker knew she had been nominated for the freedom of the town before she died. Her husband was to receive the award at the ceremony last night.

Watchdog awards council top marks

A LOCAL authority has scored top marks in an assessment by a Government watchdog.

Suffolk County Council was awarded a four-star rating in a survey by the Audit Commission, which said the local authority was "improving well".

Services for young people, children's centres, renewable energy projects and a tax rise of 2.45 per cent were all commended by the independent assessor.

Council leader Cllr Jeremy Pembroke said: "This is a strong endorsement of the exceptional services Suffolk County Council provides for people, and vital to all of us in this economic climate, at incredible value for money."

"We have already made £60 million in efficiency savings and are on track to save another £12.5m."

"All this comes after we have announced the lowest ever council tax rise for Suffolk of 2.45 per cent, together with investing a further £3.8m into safeguarding children and a further £1.1m into vulnerable adults.

"This is excellent news for local people for the lives they live and the services they use each day as well as for their pockets and household budgets."

Jane Storey, portfolio holder for resource management, said: "It's no mean feat considering the challenges that have been put before us."

"We value the work our staff have put in to maintain our four star rating, particularly with Local Government Review looming and the uncertainty that it brings."

"To have achieved these efficiencies while maintaining excellent front line services for everyone in the county is something we should be rightly proud of and something we will strive to continue.

In its report, the Audit Commission said: "Suffolk County Council is improving well. It has achieved significant efficiencies despite challenges it has faced in preparing for possible local government reorganisation."

"It has implemented children's centres as planned and has maintained good services for children and young people."

"It has improved services for vulnerable adults through a range of initiatives that support independent living."

"Fire and rescue services have improved well. Crime levels are reducing. It uses its resources effectively and provides good value for money."

"The council has robust strategic plans. It has secured PFI funding to deliver a new waste to energy plant, five new fire stations and the refurbishment of five additional fire stations."

Clothes clear-out could help charity

A CHARITY for vulnerable children is urging people to have a spring clean and then donate any unwanted item.

Barnardo's is encouraging women in Cambridgeshire, Essex and Suffolk to rid their wardrobes of unwanted, unworn and unloved items to help raise money to keep the charity running.

Staff at Barnardo's say research has revealed that women in the region have an average of 14 unworn items in their wardrobe, which could raise up to £161 million for the charity.

Gerard Cousins, director of retail, said it made sense to donate these unworn clothes.

Lifesaving tips for patients at risk of clots in hospital

GETTING ready for a stay in hospital used to mean buying a new toothbrush, a good book and some decent pyjamas. But a campaign is urging patients in the region to guard against the risk of getting a blood clot in hospital.

A hospital-acquired blood clot can kill you or a loved one and is easily prevented. The Stop the Clot campaign, backed by the Weekly News, aims to raise awareness among patients and their carers of the dangers of getting a blood clot when they are in hospital.

Hospital patients are at particular risk because they are generally immobile and vulnerable.

Each year, as many as 32,000 people in the UK die as a result of hospital blood clots. This is more than the combined total of deaths from breast cancer, AIDS and traffic accidents, and more than 25 times the number who die from MRSA.

Blood clots can also cause chronic health problems that require lifelong treatment. The Stop the Clot campaign could potentially help to save up to 310 lives in Cambridge.

BY John Morgan
Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

Everyone admitted to a hospital should be checked with a simple risk assessment test to see if they are at risk of getting a blood clot, so they can receive clot-preventing treatment if required.

An assessment should be carried out in hospital by a doctor, nurse or other health professional and a further reassessment carried out very 2-3 days.

Dr Trevor Baglin, consultant haematologist at Addenbrooke's said: "Increasing public awareness about the danger of hospital-acquired blood clots is essential if we are going to see an improvement in procedures to assess and manage each patient's risk of clots when they come into hospital."

Blood clots are the body's natural way of healing wounds. But when they happen inside an artery or vein they can block the flow of blood and cause damage to vital organs which can be fatal.

A blood clot in a deep vein in the leg, thigh or pelvis is called deep vein thrombosis (DVT) and can cause swelling and pain in that leg. If part of a DVT breaks off and gets into the lungs, it is called pulmonary embolism.

Factors likely to put people in a high-risk category include immobility, smoking, obesity, medications such as chemotherapy and the contraceptive pill, pregnancy, some medical and genetic conditions such as cancer, pneumonia and heart failure, and previous blood clots.

People are being asked to pledge support for the Stop the Clot campaign on www.stoptheclot.com/pledge, by agreeing to spread the word to family and friends about the importance of asking for a risk assessment when they go into hospital in order to prevent blood clots.

Information booklets are available on the campaign website www.stoptheclot.com and at local hospitals. To order an information booklet call 0800 694 6444.

How to stop the clot

■ Know your risk.

When you or a loved one goes into hospital, remember to ask the doctor or nurse to conduct a short, simple blood clot risk assessment test to check whether you are at risk of getting a blood clot.

■ Drink lots of fluids.

Have supplies of fresh water by your bedside at all times and remember to drink at least a glass of water every hour or two litres each day. If you are unable to drink fluids by mouth, or have been told to limit how much you can drink; ask the nurse or doctor for advice.

■ Keep mobile.

If you have to stay in hospital for a while, make sure you walk around the ward as often as you can and don't cross your legs in bed. If you are unable to get out of bed try flexing your feet upwards at regular intervals to keep the blood flowing in your legs.

■ Know if your risk has changed.

Depending on what you're in hospital for and how long you are staying, your risk of developing a blood clot may change. Remember to ask for a blood clot assessment test to be repeated by a doctor or nurse every 2-3 days of your stay in hospital.

■ Take control.

If you are at risk of developing a blood clot, remember there are a number of clot-preventing treatments and approaches that can be used. Discuss your options with the doctors and nurses who look after you in hospital.

Three stars for council

THREE stars have been given to Cambridgeshire County Council by the Audit Commission after it said the authority was "improving well".

Essex, Hertfordshire and Bedfordshire county councils were also given three stars out of a possible four, with Essex and Hertfordshire also said to be "improving well".

All four were awarded three stars the previous year.

The ratings emerged in the Comprehensive Performance Assessment (CPA) – the Audit Commission's annual measure of councils' performance in England.

Inspectors said: "Cambridgeshire County Council is improving in many priority areas. Performance remains good in children's services including educational attainment.

"Recycling rates are among the best and are improving. Adult social care has also improved."

■ TOWERING TRIUMPH... talented youngsters from Dells School of Dance are set to represent Suffolk in a national contest.

CP

Dancers are Blackpool bound

TALENTED young dancers from Haverhill have been chosen to represent Suffolk at a prestigious contest. Nine youngsters from Dells School of Dance will head to Blackpool in May for the UK Junior and Senior Theatrical Dancer of the Year competition to represent their county. The chosen dancers include 11-year-olds Katie Baldry and Georgia Age; Zoe Evans and June Dale, both 12; Nicole Alleyne, 13; and sisters, Abbey and Roxanne Jefferie, 14 and 15 respectively. The sole male dancer will be Tyrone Alleyne, aged 11, while hopes will also be high for the school's dancer of the year, 12-year-old Janna Boulton. Dance school leader Katie Dell said:

"I am chuffed that the girls have been invited back to represent Suffolk in one of the biggest competitions in the UK. 'The girls have worked hard for it and this will be our third year there - it is a big achievement to be invited back once again. 'I danced in this competition when I was younger and went on to dance for a career.'"

Enduring celebration of Mother's Day

WE celebrate Mother's Day every year and this year Mothering Sunday falls on March 22. But do you know why this special day exists?

Mothers have been celebrated since ancient times. The Greeks had a festival devoted to Rhea, mother of the gods, while the goddess Brigid was honoured in Britain. Mother's Day is now celebrated in many countries around the world.

The fourth Sunday in Lent was designated as Mothering Sunday at the start of the 17th century because this was the time when servants were allowed to visit their mothers. The festival was officially established in America in 1914.

Here are some reasons why your mum deserves lots of love and attention from you this Mother's Day!

■ All that washing: For years your mum washed and ironed your clothes without batting an eyelid.

■ The perfect pick-you-up: Mothers provide a free taxi service.

■ Shoulder to cry on: When you've had a row with someone and you're feeling raw and upset, there's nothing like talking to your mum about it.

■ Fashion guru (and financier): Before you could afford to buy your own clothes, who helped you furnish your wardrobe? Mum and her pocket money, that's who!

■ Chief cook: Where there's a mum, there's food. Take this Mothers Day as an opportunity to say thank you for all those lovingly prepared meals, late-night snacks, cups of tea, school lunchboxes and comforting suppers.

■ SPECIAL . . . Mother's Day is on March 22.

■ Someone to rely on: Your mother is always there for you.

■ Party organiser

extraordinaire: All those years of clowns, entertainers, going-home presents, food boxes, games and birthday cakes would have been nothing without your mum's hard work.

■ Wise woman: Mums love to give advice. This annoys us when we're younger but as we grow older we realise one important thing: mums are often right.

■ Love, love, love: The most important maternal function of them all. Your mum is the one person who gives you unconditional love. So show her you love her back this Mother's Day!

A Selection of gift & treat ideas to make your mum feel special

MARCH 22nd 2009

Personality types make all the difference

MOTHER'S Day is the perfect opportunity to put your thinking cap on and treat your mum to a present that's as thoughtful as she is.

Looking for the perfect gift for your mum can be a bit of a task. Finding something that suits her personality and expresses all your sentiments is a challenge for even the most thoughtful children.

Here are some inspirations based on your mum's personality type: Artisan, Idealist, Rational or Guardian...

Artisans

Characteristics: playful, daring, sensual – Artisans are major adventure seekers. The pursuit of fun is a top priority and they pride themselves on being unconventional and spontaneous.

Their free spirit makes them impulsive and they tend to be generous to a fault. They laugh in the face of risk and will do whatever it takes to accomplish their goals.

Famous Artisan mum: Madonna

Perfect gifts for an Artisan:

Silver heart necklace – a great symbol of her romantic spirit.

Idealists

Characteristics: Intuitive, romantic, enthusiastic – Idealists are passionate about personal growth and development.

They are naturally drawn to working with people and tend to be nurturing and kind hearted. The practicalities of life aren't important to Idealists, instead they believe in the possibilities waiting to be realised. They are incurable romantics, known for inspiring people with their infectious enthusiasm.

Famous Idealist mum: Audrey Hepburn

Perfect gifts for an idealist: A personalised heart locket key ring. Anything with a heart symbol is a must for this romantic personality.

Rationals

Characteristics: Independent, even tempered, logical – Rationals are problem solvers, their naturally curious nature leads them to analyse things intensely. Independent and strong willed they dedicate themselves to any project they've set their mind to. Logic wins with a rational and they aren't concerned about ruffling feathers. Their fierce concentration is often mistaken for coldness, but deep down, they dream of understanding how the world works.

Famous Rational mum: Margaret Thatcher

Perfect gifts for a rational: Jewellery, scented candles.

Guardians

Characteristics: Helpful, responsible, law abiding –

Guardians pride themselves on being dependable and hardworking.

There are never any slip-ups with a guardian holding your secrets. They are totally loyal and trustworthy and order and duty are a main concern. They have a strong sense of right and wrong, value custom, traditions and stability.

Famous Guardian mum: Queen Victoria

New moves at the top for Genzyme

BY Jack Grove

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

ONE of Haverhill's biggest employers has announced a shake-up of senior management.

Pharmaceutical firm Genzyme, which employs more than 300 staff at its Rookwood Way factory and distribution centre, has promoted Dominic Carolan to senior vice-president for its Haverhill and Irish-based operations.

Simon Cousins has moved up to vice-president for contract manufacturing.

Mr Carolan, a former director of an Irish healthcare business, will oversee Haverhill and Waterford operations as the company looks to expand its production lines.

Mr Cousins, who has led the development of Genzyme's Haverhill operations over the past 11 years, will assess the company's use of other manufacturing firms and will be involved in acquisitions of other drug companies.

Both will be based at the Haverhill site, which has benefited from more than £100 million of investment in the past five years.

Mark Bamforth, senior vice president for corporate operations and pharmaceuticals, said: "Both Simon and Dominic have played crucial roles in the growth of our UK and Ireland businesses and I am delighted to have people of their calibre on board.

■ MOVING UP... promotions in senior management.

"It is a testament to the strength of Genzyme's employees that we are able to fill these two positions from within the organisation.

"I look forward to their continued contributions in driving our business forward and developing innovative therapies for patients around the world."

Mr Carolan said: "Clearly, there are challenges ahead in our current climate, but I am encouraged that the continued good performance of the company is a testament not only to the core values that guide our actions and the longstanding excellence of service to patients but also to the quality of Genzyme's employees in the UK and Ireland."

Mr Cousins added: "I have immensely enjoyed my time leading the Haverhill facility and working with the hugely talented teams there.

"This promotion is a great opportunity for me, not only as it allows me to progress with my professional career, but also because it allows me to do so while remaining at Genzyme."

Bands set for head-to-head rock battle

A BATTLE is set to start on the local music scene after the shortlist for this year's Cambridge Band competition was announced. The competition's four heats take place each Tuesday from April 14 at the Soul Tree followed by the final at the Corn Exchange on Friday.

May 15. Heat one sees The Scene Is Dead, Little Chuck Little, Sensible Fun and The Perfect Crime going head-to-head while heat two will feature The Running Mayfairs, Alpha Road, Villa Savoye and The Scissors. The competition continues with heat three which will see sets from A.R.T.I, After Effect, Failing Stacey and Operation FM before the final heat which will include Betty, Ed Hope and Friends, Queen and Two Jacks and Wild Hope. Organiser Neil Jones said: "The most notable thing about the entries for this year's competition was just how high the standard was. Deciding on just 16 bands from some 70 that entered was difficult. "We are now looking forward to the heats in April and the start of what is, and has been for some 20 years, a true highlight of the Cambridge live music calendar."

Scandals and shady deals with politicians

By Nik Shelton

GREEN Wing and Black Books star Tamsin Greig appears in David Hare's latest play, Gethsemane, which is set to be one of the highlights of the Cambridge Arts Theatre's season when it arrives next Tuesday.

The play takes a topical look at the shady world of political party fundraising, a subject that has caused its fair share of headlines in the UK press in recent years.

The play is Hare's 14th for the National Theatre where it was produced and debuted. Alongside Greig the cast also includes Anthony Calf, who has appeared in Holby City.

For Greig, Hare's script was all she needed to get into character as an embattled Home Secretary trying to save her career from scandal.

"David Hare's very good, he writes all the clues," she says. "They're all in there, so I just basically wrote down what everyone says about my character in the play, and it's very helpful.

■ HIGHLIGHT... Gethsemane starring Tamsin Greig.

"You just write down what they say about the character and do lists of what my character says about me, and what I say about other people until you get a kind of 3D picture. And those things might not be true, but they're statements that you can build a picture around."

You would expect the real politicians to steer clear of the play. But the cast found some were able to take it on the chin. "David Blunkett has been," says Tamsin. "He really enjoyed it. It was great – he was very encouraging and really positive. He could have turned around and said 'You have no idea' – because we don't as David Hare says, it's an artist's impression, and you can't possibly know what that world is like – but he was incredibly encouraging."

But while some politicians were keen to come along and see the final product, others were more useful when it came to creating an authentic atmosphere during rehearsals.

"David Hare sent an email to Charles Clarke saying 'Can one of our actors meet you?'," Tamsin recalls. "He eventually got back and said 'Oh, alright then', and then I got to meet the present Home Secretary – it was incredible."

The show runs until Saturday, March 21 at 7.45pm and tickets are £25-£30. To book call (01223) 503333.

Fabulous frocks come out for fun at the Salon

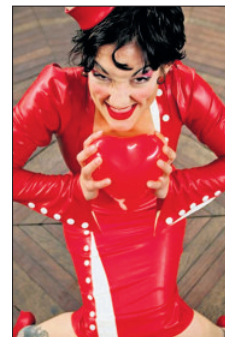

CAMBRIDGE'S most outlandish and spectacular club returns this month with a feast of burlesque, cabaret and eye catching attire.

The monthly Salon Rouge night started at The Junction last year and on Saturday, March 21, the evening will feature Miss Behave, the country's only female sword swallower, along with hula hoop act Kalki Hula.

"It's really fun and there's nothing else like this in Cambridge," says organiser Jo Scott.

"The original idea came out of a private birthday party we did. Everybody dressed up and had a fantastic time and afterwards people would stop us in the street and say we've got to do that again, it was so much fun - and eventually we did.

"The important element of it is the people it attracts, it's a very friendly, mixed crowd with a broad age range. They're looking fabulous and they know it, they're interacting with other audience members, admiring their get up and comparing notes.

■ OH BEHAVE . . . Miss Behave will be among the guests at next Salon Rouge at The Junction. CR

"It's really amazing how much creativity and effort that people put into what they're wearing. There's lots of fabulous frocks, we've had someone come as an organ grinder with a friend of his dressed as a monkey, we've had people in military uniforms and people in original vintage 40s and 50s dresses."

The nights are also attended by some larger than life local characters, such as drag queen Felicity F, the always immaculately turned out Salon Rouge Starlets and the hot wheeling Romsey Town Rollerbillies, a group of skating rock 'n' roll era fashionistas.

The event is inspired by the Moulin Rouge, early 20th Century Paris's renowned hot spot of decadence, and also by the growing burlesque scene in the UK and the US.

But the organisers are quick to correct the misconception that burlesque performances have anything to do with seedy strip clubs.

"Burlesque in its true sense is not about taking your clothes off," Jo explains. "It's more about alluding to something rather than showing it all. In some ways it's quite an innocent thing and often it is harking back to the 1930s and 40s."

The club runs from 9pm to 2am and tickets are £9. To book call (01223) 511511.

Get Estate Agents to value it and put it on the market.

Show people around the property.
(Mostly "Nosy Parkers" & Sightseers)

Show more people around.

Eventually accept an offer at between 5 & 10% off the advertised price.

Hope the sale doesn't fall through.

Once price agreed, wait a further 3 months for sale to complete.

Work out how many £,000's it has cost you in reducing the price, making mortgage payments, paying Estate Agents fee's and Legal fee's since you started the process (on average, 7 months ago...)

CAMBRIDGESHIRE drivers are invited to take advantage of Vindis Volkswagen's recession-beating campaign with a brand new Volkswagen Polo up for grabs.

Motorists will have the chance to win the vehicle - worth £8,000 at showroom price - by answering one simple question.

The red, three-door Volkswagen Polo E will include registration fees and free road tax for the first year. Entrants can enter the draw by calling into the Cambridge, Sawston or St Ives showrooms or by visiting www.vindisgroup.com and clicking on the "Win A Car" tab.

The family-owned business operates six Volkswagen retailers' across the group and is giving away the Volkswagen Polo as part of its "Something for Nothing" marketing initiative, as Vindis brand director Jamie Vindis explained.

He said: "We are all experiencing an unpredictable financial future and we believe it's important to support our existing and new Volkswagen customers during this difficult time.

"In addition to the Win a Polo draw, customers can take advantage of our price promise service. Volkswagen drivers should always pay a fair and competitive price for their service, maintenance and repair costs and price promise ensures customers can get the most from their motoring budgets."

The Price Match Promise will match any like-for-like service, maintenance or repair quotation on their range of vehicles, from any independent garage within a five-mile radius of the Vindis showrooms. All customers need to do is provide a like-for-like quotation for the job, which has to use Volkswagen Original Parts.

Vindis Group was established in 1960. The Vindis retailers in Cambridge, Sawston, St Ives, Fakenham, Bishop's Stortford and Bedford provide a full aftersales programme, in addition to supplying both new and approved used Volkswagen.

THE VOLKSWAGEN POLO... up for grabs.

■ THE ALL-NEW ALTO . . . auto or manual transmission.

All-new Suzuki Alto is on sale

THE eagerly-awaited new Suzuki Alto city car is now on sale.

The all-new car in the Japanese manufacturer's model range, which was launched on Monday, is the lowest emitting five-door petrol family car on the market, and comes at a time when many are downsizing to more economical vehicles.

The five-door Alto, available with both manual and automatic transmission, a proposition not often seen in the A-segment, comes complete with a three-cylinder 67bhp 1.0-litre engine returning a combined fuel consumption of 64.2 mpg and producing CO2 emissions as low as 103g/km.

Breaking up ain't hard to do Responsible drivers scrap their vehicles at an Authorised Treatment Facility (ATF)

Because only an ATF can legally scrap a vehicle. That means any pollutants will be made safe before it's recycled in an environmentally friendly way.

What's more, for certain types of vehicle you'll get a DVLA approved Certificate of Destruction (CoD).
A CoD proves that the ATF has told DVLA your vehicle has been scrapped and so is no longer your responsibility.

End of the road? Get over it and move on with your local ATF.

YOUTH FOOTBALL ROUND-UP

■ TEAM PHOTO . . . Members of the Linton Aztecs Under-10 squad, who play in the Cambridgeshire Mini League, face the camera before a recent match. CP.

Bailey's goal is fitting end to top effort

West Wratting 2 Burwell Tigers 0

CAMBRIDGE AND DISTRICT COLTS LEAGUE, UNDER-12D
ALTHOUGH Tigers made them work hard, West Wratting had the better share of possession and clinched a good win with two goals in the second half.

They hit the woodwork in the first half, but did not break the deadlock until Lambert struck 15 minutes from time.

Man-of-the-match Leon Bailey sealed victory 10 minutes later.

Priory Parkside B 0 Withersfield Youth 9

CAMBRIDGE AND DISTRICT COLTS LEAGUE, UNDER-12A
WITHERSFIELD brightened a wet and windy day with a competent display against depleted opposition.

Joe Baker led the way with a first-half hat-trick and although Priory – at times down to nine players – competed hard they could not stop the goal rush.

Henley Kennedy and Murray Barker were among the scorers with two goals each, taking advantage of Oliver Fish's impressive display on the right wing.

Willingham Wolves 1 Hondon Hawks 0

CAMBRIDGE AND DISTRICT COLTS LEAGUE CUP, UNDER-16 SEMI-FINAL

TWO controversial refereeing decisions cost Hawks the opportunity to pull off a shock win against the unbeaten Division A title favourites.

A foul throw was called after Ben Robinson appeared to put Hawks ahead.

And then the official allowed play to continue while a Hawks player was prone with a head injury. Wolves scored as a consequence.

However, those incidents aside, Hawks, from Under-16B, performed well against the top-rated side in the area. Apart from the goal, the defence was well organised by skipper Todd Martin and they almost created a last-minute equaliser when Tom Boyce's header flashed just wide.

Haverhill Rovers 7 Hardwick Harriers 1

CAMBRIDGE AND DISTRICT COLTS LEAGUE, UNDER-16C
ROVERS did not look back after making a bright start.

Pearson charged in for a first-half hat-trick and with Wyatt making it 4-0 at the break, Rovers were well in charge.

Although they turned round to play into the wind, Rovers' defence held firm and once they weathered the storm, Ashcroft, a Bavester penalty and Edwards completed the scoring.

Chatteris Town 3 Haverhill Rovers 5

CAMBRIDGE AND DISTRICT COLTS LEAGUE, UNDER-15B
HAVERHILL bounced back from a 2-0 half-time deficit to get their league and cup double hopes on track.

Chris Ball fired a hat-trick, Alex Nagy netted with a stunning curling shot from a yard inside the corner flag and Romario Robinson unleashed a wonder strike to banish memories of their dismal first-half performances.

Wratting's joy as Charlie lets Ripp

Haverhill Rov 0 West Wratting 5

CAMBS MINI LEAGUE, UNDER-11A
WRATTING must have realised it was going to be their day when Dom Fera's free kick from just inside the Haverhill half sailed over everybody and nestled in the back of the net. Man-of-the-match Liam Gibbs made it 2-0 at half time and two goals from Charlie Ripp soon after decided matters. Mo Horsley completed the scoring as Wratting turned on the style.

Grampian Gunners 11 Wilbraham Warriors 0

CAMBS MINI LEAGUE, UNDER-11A
GRAMPIAN made the most of their first home game in two months with a comprehensive victory. Bailey Cassidy opened the scoring before the impressive Ashley Whyatt set up both Jack Ferguson and Cassidy again before Jamie Lingard completed the first-half scoring. Toby Daly's deflected shot started a second-half spree continued by three more for Lingard, Josh Matthewson (2), and Aaron Thorne. Manager Neil Mustoe said: "Hats off to Wilbraham who never gave up but our lads worked hard and deserved the win."

Grampian Gunners 0 Hondon Hawks 2

CAMBS MINI LEAGUE, UNDER-10
HAWKS made a better start and scored their goals in quick succession. First Ince scored from the penalty spot after a Holmes corner, and he scored again in the next attack. However, the second half was a different story with Hawks pressed back. Thompson hit the bar and post but Gunners could not get the breakthrough they craved.

Haverhill Rovers 2 Grampian Gunners 0

CAMBS MINI LEAGUE, UNDER-10B
ROVERS made a good start but needed an own goal to end the stalemate. They continued to push forward and the Gunners' keeper did well to keep out efforts from Kai Farrant, Charlie Stephens, Jordan Greenaway and Billy Campbell. However, the tide turned after half time and Lewis Cass had to be on his toes to stop Gunners equalising. Charlie Stephens made the game safe with an outstanding goal, although man-of-the-match Farrant went close to making it 3-0 when his shot hit the post.

Jack's all right and it's smart Alex . . .

Haverhill Rov 9 Cherry Hinton 1

CAMBRIDGE AND DISTRICT COLTS LEAGUE, UNDER-11C
JACK Trowbridge and Alex Carter blasted four goals each as a depleted Haverhill side swamped second-in-the-table Cherry Hinton. Rovers wasted little time taking the lead, Paul Jenkinson firing home, and then ran riot. Carter hit all his goals in the first half – one a penalty – and, with two from Trowbridge, Rovers went in 7-0 up at the break. Trowbridge completed the demolition in the second half.

LATEST NEWS FROM HAMLET CROFT

Double despair for sad Rovers

CRC 4 Haverhill Rovers 0

RIDGEONS LEAGUE, PREMIER DIVISION

A THRASHING at the Abbey Stadium completed a miserable week for Haverhill in their attempt to claw their way off the bottom of the table.

Mark Convery's 20-yard strike sealed a great result for the hosts on Wednesday night.

CRC broke the deadlock after 22 minutes through Adam Marriott, and doubled their lead on the stroke of the half time with a penalty from Blaine Hudson following a foul on Marriott.

Sam Ives teed up John

Yambasu for CRC's third moments after the restart and Convery put the icing on the cake with 20 minutes left.

Haverhill Rovers 1 Wivenhoe Town 3

RIDGEONS LEAGUE, PREMIER DIVISION

HAVERHILL'S hopes of closing the gap on their relegation-threatened rivals were dashed as they suffered a home defeat the previous Friday night to fellow strugglers Wivenhoe Town, managed by West Ham legend Julian Dicks.

Just under 300 fans took advantage of the free entry, but the increased crowd could not cheer Rovers on to victory.

Shaun Banham fired Rovers in front in the 12th minute and Neil Hammond should have made it 2-0 midway through the half.

Banham and Neil Cogger went close early in the second half, before the visitors levelled with 20 minutes left.

Town then took the lead 10 minutes from time and a spectacular overhead kick in the 89th minute condemned Rovers to defeat.

Rovers remain eight points adrift of nearest rival Woodbridge at the foot of the table.

And they face a daunting task on Saturday, as they continue their battle for survival with a trip to runaway league leaders and FA Vase semi-finalists, Lowestoft Town.

■ ON TARGET . . . Shaun Banham.

Angels sunk by scoring blast

Delaware Feather Angels 1 Haverhill Town 4

TREADFIRST SUDBURY AND DISTRICT SUNDAY LEAGUE, DIVISION FIVE CUP

ANGELS' cup chances were decided in a five-minute spell in the second half. Craig Foster went close to breaking the deadlock when he hit the bar from a free kick.

But Town slammed three goals inside the opening five minutes of the second half as Delaware's defence struggled to get organised, and the tie was as good as over.

Haverhill went 4-0 up before Mark Bailey scored a consolation goal.

Delaware Feather Angels: Fielden, Ball, Benson, List, Strasters, Grayton (Bailey, 60), Foster, Stock, McCormack, Townsend, Strachan (Tharby, 65).
